

For Immediate Release

November 6, 2024

Classic Auctions Celebrates Boston Bruins' Centennial with Historic Fall 2024 Auction

Delson, Quebec, Canada – Classic Auctions, the world's leading hockey memorabilia auction house, is thrilled to announce its Fall 2024 Auction, commemorating the 100th Anniversary of the Boston Bruins, the NHL's first American franchise. The auction, which began on November 5th and runs until December 3rd, 2024, features over 1,000 exceptional lots, including some of the most iconic items in hockey history.

A Tribute to 100 Years of Bruins Excellence

On December 1, 1924, the Boston Bruins played their first NHL game, marking the beginning of a storied legacy that includes six Stanley Cup championships, legendary players, and unforgettable moments. To celebrate this milestone, Classic Auctions proudly offers an extraordinary selection of Bruins memorabilia.

Featured Item: Bobby Orr's 1973-74 Boston Bruins Game-Worn Jersey

The centerpiece of the auction is Bobby Orr's game-worn jersey from the 1973-74 season, photo-matched to multiple games. This iconic piece represents one of the greatest players in NHL history and his unparalleled contributions to the Bruins' legacy. A symbol of Orr's brilliance and the golden age of hockey, this jersey is a must-have for serious collectors.

Additional Bruins Highlights

- Phil Esposito's Personal Collection – Featuring lots, including his 1969-70 championship ring, and many other iconic pieces.
- Tim Thomas's Personal Collection – A selection of game-worn gear from two-time Vezina trophy winner.

- Other items spanning nearly a century of Bruins history, celebrating the players and moments that defined the franchise.

“Our Fall 2024 Auction honors the incredible legacy of the Boston Bruins, with Bobby Orr’s jersey as the crown jewel of this collection,” said Marc Juteau, CEO and Founder of Classic Auctions. “This auction is a celebration of the team’s centennial and its lasting impact on the game of hockey.”

An Unparalleled Collection of Hockey History

In addition to the Bruins-themed highlights, the Fall 2024 Auction offers an extraordinary selection of memorabilia from across the hockey world, including:

- Mats Naslund’s Personal Collection – Including his 1986-87 Montreal Canadiens Game-Worn Captain’s Jersey and 1980 Winter Olympics Bronze Medal.
- Carey Price’s Personal Collection – Artifacts from one of the NHL’s greatest modern goaltenders.
- Rare trading cards and collectibles spanning decades of sports history.

Bid Now on Hockey’s Greatest Treasures

The Fall 2024 Auction is live now and open for bidding until December 3rd. Visit www.classicauctions.net to view the full catalog and place your bids. All items have been meticulously authenticated, with certificates of authenticity provided where applicable.

For media inquiries, please contact:

Marc Juteau

CEO & Founder

Classic Auctions

Phone: 450-638-7058

Email: info@classicauctions.net

